June 1997 Update

Dear fellow ex-Mod. Lang. students of twenty-five years ago,

Many thanks for all your replies, your £10 deposits and your positive comments. Anyone who has not yet replied and is still in two minds about it ... well, there's still time to make arrangements to come and join us - it will be a memorable occasion and you'll be glad you attended!

We have so far got twenty or more confirmations, so there is no doubt that the reunion is definitely going ahead as planned. Unfortunately five or six people won't be able to join us because of other commitments but have expressed interest in the next reunion, whether it's in the year 2022 or hopefully sooner! So there are still quite a few who haven't yet decided, and there are about twenty of our fellow-graduates whose whereabouts we haven't yet managed to trace but we're still trying! We are also trying to get in touch with a few of the lecturers whom you have said you would like to see again.

The venue, the Pennington Midland Hotel near Forster Square, is excellent. We have carried out a pre-reunion inspection visit and are very happy with its facilities. As you will see from the enclosed programme, the main event is the reunion buffet at 7.30 p.m. in the Wyvern Room of the hotel. We have however arranged various meeting points for those arriving at various times on the Saturday or even on the previous evening. Please join us whenever is most suitable for you - we'll try to arrange to wear a little badge or something by which you can identify us after all these years!

Nearer the time we'll let you know all the little details and send you a map of how to get to the Pennington Midland Hotel. For those staying overnight, a single room and breakfast costs £35; a double/twin room is £49. (The four-poster deluxe suite is £90, if anyone is interested!). The buffet and hire of the function room will come to not more than £10 per person. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to drop us a line or give us a ring.

Meantime, go up into the attic or loft and see if you can dig up a few old photos of yourself and others from those Bradford days - we'll see if we can display them in the buffet room! And feel free to bring along any other memorabilia which will help the conversation flow freely. As you'll see from the reverse side of the "Class of '72 Reunion Quiz" we've located a copy of the Degree Examinations International Institutions and other papers - and don't they look fascinating?

One other question for those attending the reunion - would any of you be interested in a short coach tour of the Dales on the Sunday morning? Say, from 10.00 to 12.00, before we all go our separate ways? We shall try to arrange this if sufficient interest is shown, but obviously we'll need to know in advance.

Obviously there will come a point at which the Pennington Midland Hotel will want to know exactly how many people want a room and exactly how many people to provide a buffet for. At the moment we can only give them a rough estimate. If you haven't yet given us a definite yes or no, we'd appreciate some news from you - and if, for whatever reason, you simply aren't able to commit yourself just yet, of course that's O.K. but we'd still like to hear from you before too long.

Looking forward to seeing you soon.

Yes indeed!

Best wishes.

This is going to be a brilliant occasion.

Mike, Derek, John

See you in the Pennington
Midland Hotel ...

Derek
